Bill Sanborn is seeking the political office of State Representative, 7th House District as a republican. He wishes to offer a local voice with solutions that will further state government, and deliver services to the needs to the local community of West Hawaii.

As a citizen of our island community, Bill Sanborn seeks commitment towards achieving better results.

He believes that it is everyone's duty to participate to better our communities. Mr. Sanborn believes that 'home rule' is listening to the voice of the community and then interacting with government to facilitate its accomplishments, and effectiveness.

Mr. Sanborn was born June 12, 1947 in Honolulu, where was raised with two brothers. His paternal grandmother was born in Waimea on the Big Island, and is of part Hawaiian decent. He is a 1965 high school graduate of Punahou school in Honolulu. He became a 1971 graduate of Pacific Lutheran University where he earned a Bachelor of Business Administration.

Mr. Sanborn has two grown children and three grandchildren. He presently resides in Waimea with his partner of 18 years, Susan J. Moss. Bill and Sue have hosted a rotary youth exchange student from Tokyo, Japan, and are currently fully licensed as a state foster care home, having recently cared for Bill's five-year-old grandson.

Bill Sanborn is currently chairman of the County of Hawaii Salary Commission, representing Council District 9 as a republican.
